HEATHER HOGREE

Serious and highly enthusiastic about furthering my modeling career. Moreover, I love the camera, and at least I've been told, the camera loves me. I am a very creative, free spirited individual, and take direction well. I primarily do glamour/bikini/lingerie modeling, but am open minded to other areas of opportunity that might catch my interest.

Although somewhat new to modeling, I do have quite a bit of experience in promotional modeling. I have also shot various calendars, including features in the Hooters, Daytona Bike week, and Orlando surf expo calendars. I don't think the previous is by any means a fair representation of my capabilities and potential as a model though.

A Woman’s Beauty

“I feel all women of all sizes are beautiful and should be confident in their own skin.”

“No one should stop you from feeling great or pursuing your dreams. There is no expiration date on fulfilling your dreams.”

Kim Thiery

This beautiful 47 years old divorced and mother of three, educated with a Masters Degree, started modeling few months ago and it just came so naturally to her. She says it built up her self-confidence and made her realize a lot about her dreams and herself,

“I feel all women of all sizes are beautiful and should be confident in their own skin. I believe that many women, once they become mother, they feel they can not be sexy.”

She also heard some negative comments from people such as:

“you shouldn’t dress like you’re in your twenties or thirties”, she simply answers back “well, why not? I know when to dress professional, sexy and sporty”.

Her goal is to send a message to all women whether they are mothers or divorced that they have the right to still feel sexy and show it off.

She says “No one should stop you from feeling great or pursuing your dreams. There is no expiration date on fulfilling your dreams and one of mine has been to be in a swimsuit magazine as well as posing for many other things”. She loves the beach as much as posing.

She also look forward to inspire anyone, of any age, who is going through a tough time in life, even if they just need a lift.

“If I can inspire one person a day that will inspire me”. She is currently working on writing a book titled “It Rained, It Poured But I am Still Standing”.

As people get to know her, they describe her as being real, caring, compassionate, enthusiastic, inquisitive, eager to learn new things, conscientious, responsible and reliable!

modeling has brought out my extrovert alter ego.

My modeling

began in Little Rock, Arkansas back in 2011 when I was 22 years old. I started out slow at first, just doing small shoots here and there. I somewhat just fell into the modeling industry. Now I am traveling around the southern part of the United States working with amazing photographers. I love to travel and see new places as well as meet new people. So far, I have traveled to Los Angeles, Dallas, and on my way to Atlanta. One day I hope to make it to New York as well.

I am petite alternative by definition. Given that I am only 5'2" and my hair is bright red, I do not fit into the mainstream of modeling. I dyed it in the spring of 2012 as a "test". Since then, I have fallen in love with the color. I love that people comment on my hair wherever I go. Just a little extra "difference" makes me stand out from the crowd. I have done a large number of shoots over the past year for numerous photographers. My modeling consists of many different genres including glamour, lingerie, swimwear, and pinup that I just added a little while ago. I am trying to venture into other genres as well just to see where I fit. In high school, I was in two musicals as well as two dance shows. I loved preforming on stage although I am extremely shy. You can say that modeling has brought out my extrovert alter ego.

CRYSTAL DANOS

She lives with the attitude of "I am my only competition". I only have to be better than the person I was yesterday.

A proud Native American from the southern heat of pointe-aux-chene Louisiana. A full time OB/GYN Nurse who describes herself with 3 simple words Classy, inspiring, and exotic or Sweet with Spice and everything nice.. "Modeling is a natural aspect of my personality, I love the fact that every shot my photographer and I produced tells a story. Modeling quickly became a passion and an addiction to me".

Her Goals in life

are to continue her natural born talent. She plans to continue acting, modeling, glamour, fashion shows, fitness and print and to pursue her childhood dream to become a full time model/ actress and be named MRS. WOLDWIDE! She lives with the attitude of "I am my only competition". I only have to be better than the person I was yesterday.

Amy Taylor

SHE'S A "SWITCH "

Amy Taylor was born in New England, but has called California home since early childhood. While spending nearly two decades as a published model (see her in FHM Turkey this March 2014!), she also received her undergraduate degree in Berkeley, MBA in Los Angeles and eventually commercial pilot licenses in Arizona. When she's not found in front of the camera, she's enjoying the sunny skies as a flight instructor, keeping fit in her local Southern California gym, or at the park playing with her dog.

Amy enjoys marksmanship, polo, SCUBA, tennis, golf and cooking. Single and child-free, she's as fond of freedom as she is of hedonism (she's a "switch..." look it up. J). She dreams of continuing her travels (still on the list are Oceania, Antarctica, and the Middle East), promoting the healthy-model possibility (she doesn't starve herself and never will!), and enjoying plenty of adventures that can't be talked about in this article.... Dream On guys...

DESTANY PRICE

Once upon a time -this is how every fairy tale begins, right?- in a small town called Auburndale in Florida, a beautiful brunette was born. Her name? Destany Price.

But just like many well-known fairy tales, she had a rough childhood. But these experiences are what made her the strong, independent, and heads-strong woman she is today.

Never in a million years would she have thought she would be where she is today! However, she does not regret anything that she has ever done or overcame in her life. Everything happens for a reason, right?

One thing that some of her fans may either love or hate about her is that she is a great and proud vertical gymnast. It's not something she would ever recommend to young ladies, but she doesn't judge people who do it either. In the way she sees it, if you respect yourself, keep your morals, and do not lose yourself in the process, then it just becomes another job in your book.

LARRY HODGE PHOTOGRAPHY

She loves getting to know people and hearing their life stories. She's fun, bubbly, and a total sweetheart. But like all southern belles, she has a dark side too (but that's another story for another time).

On another note, she loves photography. She has a very keen eye for scenery or even those precious moments that you know you will never relive except through a memory. Who knows? Maybe we'll see her from the other side of the camera one day!

As for her love life, she can be drawn to many different types of men as long as they have a beautiful smile, an outgoing personality, and a great sense of humor (she always says, "is that too much to ask?..")

Last but certainly not least, her deepest and darkest secrets. Sorry guys, but a woman's heart is a deep ocean of secrets, and it takes a special someone to discover the buried treasure... xoxo.

with me being me.

Born and raised in Kentucky but moved to New Hampshire 12 years ago. And I will say that even though I truly miss the south, I love the north. I have everything that I love right here around me. I'm a girl that absolutely loves the ocean and being only minutes away is my dream come true! My modeling career is fairly new to me. Although I competed in a few pageants growing up, the actual modeling and doing shoots only started a couple years ago when I decided to compete in the mrs new Hampshire pageant. I won the fabulous face of Facebook for the mrs New Hampshire pageant but didn't win the competition. The experience alone was worth it to me. I met so many great people and had such a great time that night! I love all that modeling has to offer to me, i find it a form of therapy, a stress reliever and a way of breaking me out of my shell. I wasn't the most popular girl in junior high since I came to a new school from a catholic grade school where we were very sheltered from all bad in the world and where everyone was friends in the school. I was bullied and chased home very often for being the weird kid the one who wouldn't talk to others and was too shy- and yeah I admit it I wasn't the cutest kid. But I use modeling now to pull me out of those shy ways and become someone who can produce great pictures. I take on suicide prevention and anti bullying as my platforms for my pageants because, I feel one life lost is one too many! I don't want other girls to feel like I did as a kid. I would love to make modeling a full time career and be seen in fashion magazines around the world. and I would be thrilled to walk runway in NY one day. It's a huge goal but maybe if I keep trying I'll make it come true. But really my only goal in life is to be happy with all I have in life, whether it's my job, my family, and just being happy with me being me.

A form of art.

One of the few east coast models with tatooes and piercings. I usually just wear my nose ring but I have my left nipple pierced, my tongue, libret, monroe, and my nose. Many people ask what my tattoos mean; they are a form of art, my sleeve is in progress and the theme is fairytale, I do have one tatoo that is to remind me of my parents that passed away a few years ago from illnesses.
