Acantha Address

When she was little, you could find her playing in the vast collection of her grandmothers' makeup, dreaming and looking up to the adult fashion world. Since then she has been fascinated with modeling and the immense beauty every woman possesses.

She loves making things "pretty", and since she has a bit of a creative character, loves the fact this can be channeled into her work as a model. Either through simple makeup tricks, an outfit, or simply the right "pose." There is nothing about the modeling world she does not like, and intends to make it a lifelong pursuit upon graduation. She dreams of one day owning her own modeling agency, and/or working side of Hugh Hefner, and fully believes in the power and beauty of each individual woman. If she were to make it into Bikini magazine, it would be her first time being published.

Acantha

is a full time mother, model, and student. She plans on attending college for Dental Hygiene, and loves the flexibility it could offer her in the world of modeling.

I am 30 years old. I have been modeling for around 3 years now and I am absolutely in love with it! I have found a new confidence within myself since I began modeling and I've never felt so beautiful in my life. It brings out the best in me and allows me to be creative and artistic and forces me to work hard to reach my goals. I always have my next shoot on my mind and am always thinking about what I can do to make that shoot the best one yet. I hope to go as far as I can in the industry and I hope that everyone continues to enjoy my work along the way.

Danielle Walker

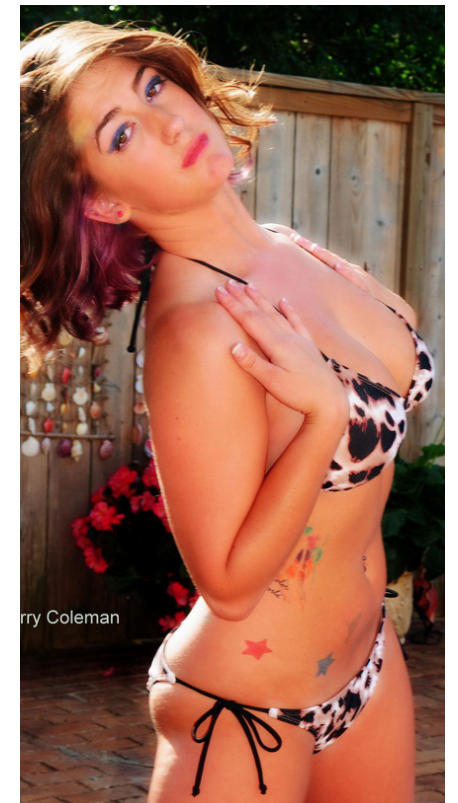

She said: "I would love to be a published model someday"...
We said: "Here you are Danielle"

My goal and drive for modeling comes from the internal joy it makes me feel. I love to transform into this sexy seductive person in front of the camera.

I have a husband who is behind me 110% for anything I choose. I love it. But it wasn't always that easy. Previously, boyfriends would feel insecure when I did seductive or sexy shoots. It really helps to have a partner stand beside you.

My main pursuit in life is happiness and to always be smiling and find a good time wherever I am!

Jean Paul GAULTIER "LE MALE"

Cortney Jayde

Hey guys ! I am a young aspiring model I've been modelling for 3 years now and am a single mama to a 2 year old little boy, though I wish modelling was my full time job it isn't, I am a full time real estate agent.

I'm a total country sweetheart. Grew up on a small farm riding horses & pigs :p I am a competitive pole dancer, sorry boys no stripping ;) my biggest role model in the model world right now is defiantly playboy miss social Taryn Maria! One day I hope to be just like her and have as many fans as she does!!

KimThiery

My children are my biggest motivators. I hate struggling with anything in life. Aside from my daughter I have two sons 20 and 14. I had to divorce their father when they were young and now my goal is to provide a better life for them. Divorce is hard but you learn the surviving skills and my kids helped me to accept life and to continue fighting for my dreams. They became the main reason for me to believe in myself and that I can get through anything! They helped me keep my faith and self esteem at a tough time. I am thrilled they each have their own special bond with me and we worked on those bonds separately.

And I agree with illusion, I want to show them how it is never to late to follow your dreams. That you should never give up. If you work hard, and want something bad enough, you can attain it. I wanted them to realize so much from what I experienced and learn that true friends, boyfriends, girlfriends, etc. do exist just because my marriage didn't I don't ever want them not to follow their hearts. Whatever they are passionate about doing they should go after it 100 %. As far as my daughter who was part of this photo shoot she has one more year of High School than is off to being a nurse! We have many songs like that song by Martina McBride " In my daughter's Eyes " is one of our favorites!

I consider myself a really optimistic adult even perhaps unrealistically optimistic at times. But I certainly have my days and my moments where my outlook on things isn't so rosy especially after certain things that occurred in my life. All adults have those moments.

But children are naturally optimistic. And that inspires me. There truly is no expiration date on when or what age you can be to achieve your dreams I want to achieve many things and fulfill many of my dreams and even though I am not in my 20's or 30's lol- it doesn't mean it can't be done.

Midas Photography

Midas began his journey in photography while a junior in college after seeing the work of noted sports and figure photographer David Allio. After purchasing his first camera, Midas gained recognition by placing in his first photo contest within months of picking up the camera. While finishing his career in college, Midas took on the role of both editor and photographer of his college yearbook, which gained recognition for the vast improvement of the photo content.

After graduation, Midas located to Myrtle Beach, SC. He took steps of becoming a professional by accepting a position with an advertising agency. However the type of assignments did not satisfy the need to work with people and left the company after a short period. While living in South Carolina, Midas produced his most awarded work Galleon at Night .

Years later, Midas returned to his native Virginia and opened Golden Image Photography. The specialty was portraiture and wedding photography with some portfolio work with local models. Another award winning photo was created during this period Cory Loves Allie.

From 1998-2011, was a period of retirement from the world of photography and he decided to make a go of it again in 2012 in a much larger city than a small Virginia town. After a slow start, Midas has established himself as a sought after photographer with clients who have graced many runways and ads to clients who are nationally & internationally known centerfolds and cover girls.

The suggestion from model Kendra Singleton to consider publications was a big pay-off for both as she was featured in July 2014 edition of Bikini Magazine and a top candidate for 2015 Calendar Model.

But one question remains, how did Tim become Midas? Was it everything he touched become a muffler or gold? He'll never answer publicly but maybe if you shoot with him he may reveal the secret.

Christina Marie

My ultimate goal is to be published in Playboy.

My name is Christina Marie and I currently live down on the Jersey Shore. I grew up in North Jersey in a town called Lyndhurst in Bergen County. When I was 11 my family and I moved down to the shore to be closer to family. I am a veterinary technician at a local animal hospital in town and I absolutely love my job!

I started modeling about a year and a half ago and love it. Since then I have become a ring card girl for a boxing company and have done multiple shoots. My ultimate goal is to get the chance to be published in Playboy. One of my dreams is to be a successful model and move to where I'll have a huge farm with as many rescued animals I can fit! I grew up around horses so horseback riding is my favorite hobby.

A little secret I don't tell many people is that I was actually named after one of my fathers racehorses! I cannot wait to see what the future holds for me and am ready for anything that comes my way.

Paige Young

Paige Young is an international sensation! She enjoys modeling in all areas but truly excels in sex culture and fashion! There's highs and lows to both areas of modeling and she simply can't choose one.

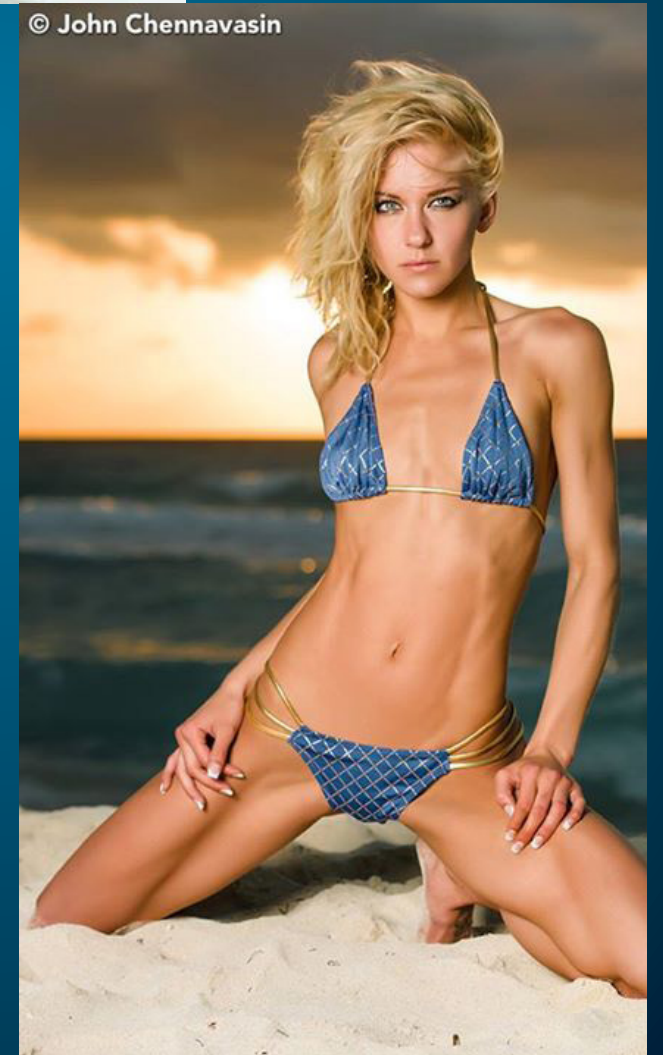

© John Chennavasin

Paige started at age 7, in Red Deer, Alberta when she worked for Tune Crew as a Reitman's runway model. This was a hard time in her life considering her parents weren't very supportive of her, so she moved out at a very young age to chase her dreams and goals. Paige believes goals are dreams with a deadline. So she set off to Toronto, Ontario to pursue a successful and lucrative modeling career. There were many hardships along the way but many unforgettable moments as well.

Some of her first experience on TV were for "so you wanna fight" as a ring girl, and as a chin bikini contestant on "Good Morning Canada" aired on breakfast television. Shes encountered many celebrities on VIP passes to more concerts than there is room here to list! But never having to pay a nickle - she is a sociable, free spirited, gypsy people just love to be around so she has personal invites. Modeling is her passion, loving the arts Paige has developed experience in many areas including runway, TV commercials, music videos, bikini modeling, lingerie modeling, glamour modeling, fashion modeling, and she has coordinated her own fashion show on the reality TV show IBMS. Paige has worked hard and consequently, earned herself the title in Toronto Image Awards for "best model".

Have a taste for beer? You can find Paige promotional modeling for Budweiser and competing for MS. Bud in the Molson Indys in 2011, however she didn't take the title. No hard feelings when your already Mother Nature for Erupt Nutrients! A medical marijuana spokes model superhero! That's not the only superhero gig Paige has gotten, shes Ms. Galaxy in a comic book collection and there are plenty of collectible cards to be sought after.

One of her most recent competitions were for Top Model Search Canada, its no wonder the Gamboas chose her for their Special Edition Bikini megazine!

Rachel McKay

My name is Rachel, I'm 21 years old and heavily involved in the entertainment industry. I have been blessed and recognized as a young model/actress with amazing opportunities arise such as, with fashion magazines, photoshoots, ads, commercials and music videos. Overall, this girl is 100% Canadian (and Canadian and internationalized agency represented, and always willing to shoot and expand my work!)

With that being said, I'm a driven, dedicated hard worker who strives and constantly works at wanting to become better and better within the industry.

I'm the type of young lady who is; quirky, hilarious, goofy, outgoing, legit the life of the party! (not trying to toot my own horn here.. hehe) - spontaneous, yet sweet, kind hearted and caring. I love anything to do with fitness/ working out, walking along the beach during sunset.. having the waves splash up against my legs & I treat people with respect, and will do anything to help family or friends out. I make time for anyone who will attempt to make the time with me.

To be honest, there is something about myself that makes me unique and different than the rest. (Did I mention I have a twin? Ok, totally not what I was getting at here.. but on a more serious note, at one point in my life, I had a major relapse with my mental health. I felt lost. I suffer with depression, anxiety, and an ED. After my grandma passed away two summers ago, I was a spiralled mess. Freshly coming out of highschool and going back for a "Victory Lap" year.. I was actually quite a mess. I wasn't sleeping, eating, working myself way to hard, and basically had a near death experience seeing myself diminish before my eyes. Family and friends were so traumatized and worried. I needed help. It was a desperate measure that needed to be taken.

Instead of attending my first year of college at the age of 19, I decided to seek professional help with my depression, anxiety, and ED. That was the best decision

I ever made in my life because it has made me the strong, young woman I am today. My ex of 3 years left me at my complete worst and said, "come back to me when you're better". I was so heart broken at the time but slowly began to realize that, if he left me at my worst, he sure as hell doesn't deserve me at my best. Now at the age of 21, I stand away from my past, and promise myself I would never become the person I once was. I am free.

I want to be a recovered speaker able to be able to reach out and tell others who struggle with mental health that they are not alone. That they can overpower the negative energy they have. There is hope. In order to be truly happy in life, you have to be able to love yourself no matter what, inside and out. Love yourself first because after all, no one else does a better job at being you, than yourself! Don't push the ones away who love you, pull them in and love. You are all bomb shell beautiful babes, please remember that.

I was born in Bensonhurst Brooklyn and I am Italian, Sicilian and Norweign

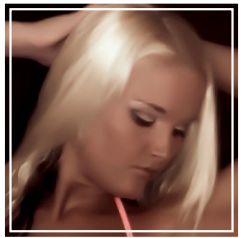

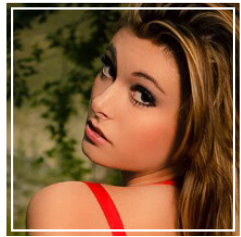

My name is Jill Cisternino also known as JillyGems. I was born in Bensonhurst Brooklyn and I am Italian, Sicilian and Norweign. I started modeling a few years ago after doing a photoshoot for a private-party bartending site that I actually never followed through with.

I loved the photos that I had done so everything just started from there. I have always been an artsey creative person so modeling, doing make-up and styling my shoots it allows me to express myself. Aside from modeling I bartend in New York City and I am attending college majoring in communications. When I am not busy working I am probably working out, partying in the meatpacking district, shopping or even getting a tattoo.

I am one of the few east coast models with tatooes and piercings. I usually just wear my nose ring but I have my left nipple pierced, my tongue, libret, monroe, and my nose. Many people ask what my tatooes mean; they are a form of art, my sleeve is in progress and the theme is fairytale, I do have one tatoo that is to remind me of my parents that passed away a few years ago from illnesses. Where I live on the east coast is New York City one of the craziest places to live. I love it because you can never be bored there is always somewhere to go and something super excited to do! To me nothing makes me happier then surrounding myself with people like myself....crazy fun people like my bestfriends.

I usually just wear my nose ring but I have my left nipple pierced, my tongue, libret, monroe, and my nose. Many people ask what my tatooes mean; they are a form of art, my sleeve is in progress and the theme is fairytale,
