Anne Ransom

Hello! My name is Anne Ransom, and I'm a 22 year old professional model from New England. I have been modeling for two and a half years now and I absolutely love it! I model with Bella Life Modeling Agency and The Beauty Within Modeling Agency. Besides modeling full-time, I also compete in local beauty pageants, volunteer with several charities, and am currently training for my first bikini competition, which will take place this spring. I aspire to be a nationally-known swimsuit, lingerie, fitness and fashion model, a board member of a charity, and to earn my pro card in bodybuilding competitions, as well as travel around Europe and learn new languages. I am currently single, but wouldn't mind dating a handsome somebody :)

H

Hi! I'm Ashley! First and foremost, since a child, I have always been a writer. First it was little books I would make myself, and now it's movie scripts, novels, and children's books. I am an actress and have been since I was a child, acting in church plays and drama class productions. I play a phallic-obsessed, mental patient named Rebecca in the upcoming film MERMAID DOWN, written and directed by Jeffrey Grellman, which will be released this year. Keep an eye out for it! THEY EXIST.

Ashley
Cordelia

Nikki Nichole is a 21 year old Internationally published model from Arizona. She's been published in Inked Girls Magazine, Custom Tattooz Magazine, Players Magazine, and many more! This gorgeous tattoo model did years of competitive boxing, soccer, basketball, volleyball, and she was even part of a city swim team. Needless to say, she's a rockstar.

Through Nikki's elementary and junior high school years, she was bullied a lot for being overweight and tomboy. At first, her goal was to prove to everyone that she could be a full-time model. Mission accomplished. Now, her goal is to show people that no matter what they've been through, anything is possible if they put their mind to it.

KaraMichelle

Hi, I am Kara Michelle an agency represented model from Tampa, Florida. My print work includes assignments with Nike, Champion Sports and Bealls Department stores. I have appeared in Photoshop, Vogue and FAME magazine among other. TV work has included appearances on HSN, FOX News, and the ABC News, The List. I have also begun film work, including a new Web Series, Angel of the Underworld. I am passionate about my work and enjoy new opportunities and experience. Erin Fay is a 24 year old model from New Jersey. She has been modeling for 5 years and it has become quite a passion of hers. Her goals are to shoot for playboy and has been featured on playboy Mexico's website and competes in Playboy miss social. She is also a promotional model for Bud Light. Her social media fan base reaches over 80 thousand people and has become very popular on social media. Her dreams are to be published all over the world. As a child Erin was not known to be one of the pretty or popular girls and was not chased around by the boys. She was picked on and was very shy. In her 5th grade year book when asked what she wanted to be when she grew up she put down modeling. With no actual intentions of becoming a successful model she got older and went for her dream. Even if she does not reach all her goals as a modeling she has made it farther in the industry then she ever thought possible. She will continue to keep thriving as a model in the small town of Manahawkin New Jersey in hopes to become bigger then she ever imagined. She hopes to soon move to Las Angeles for more opportunities in the near future. Keep an eye out for this young aspiring model

Jade Carroll

My name is Taylor-Jade Carroll and I am a 20 year old Bikini Athlete. What encourages me day to day is the idea of motivating others to commit to a routine to succeed their goals! I began my journey with the smallest error of someone doubting me and chuckling at the fact that I would begin to work out and become a NPC fitness competitor. I have not only begun competing but I have also escalated in progress as well as my dreams exceptionally quick! The smallest sense of doubt towards me does nothing but spark a powerful flame. I know that if I set my mind to anything in this world I will and can achieve just that!

Candice Elizabeth

Candice Elizabeth started doing modelling for fun when she was studying to be a teacher so that she could get some themed shots to apply for acting parts in student films. She loved being in front of the camera but at the same time she was really worried about doing anything to risque (even bikini/lingerie she steered clear of) because she didn't want any future students stumbling across photos on the internet years later. That actually happened when she was teaching, but that's a whole different story!

When her teaching job ended, she realised that that was the only thing stopping her from really giving modelling a go, so she went for it! Being a teacher meant that she developed patience, as well as some smarts. Both of these things help in modelling for sure.

Since deciding to pursue modelling in 2013, Candice has been published multiple times in different men's magazines, competed in numerous online modelling competitions, as well as being sought for online features and music videos. Her online portfolio/presence has increased in leaps and bounds in the short time since she has begun pursuing modelling and she hopes that her portfolio continues to improve in 2015. A recent noteworthy achievement was being crowned Playboy's Miss Social August 2014, which saw her jet-set to the United States for a photoshoot with a Playboy photographer and take a tour of the mansion in December 2014. She is over the moon to be a part of the Playboy family and proud to be the first (and only!) Australian and redhead winner.

When it comes to styles, Candice loves glamour-style photography above all else and is also really fond of the pin-up style. She loves these styles of shoots as she believes that they best flatter her body type and look. Her natural body is slim yet curvy, and this combined with her fair skin and natural red hair gives her a unique yet classic look that is extremely versatile and striking. Long-term, ultimately she'd love to be a world-renowned glamour model modelling for men's mags like Zoo and Maxim for example, as well as being a lingerie model for lingerie made specifically for smaller-framed women with larger busts. Bikini modelling is also somewhere she'd like to go, as women with larger busts don't seem to be represented, so when you're buying online you have no idea how it will look on you compared to a model with a B-cup, for example.

The most important thing she's learnt is not to take criticism and knock-backs personally. When you start posting things in a public forum, negativity is always going to find its way to you. Even models like Miranda Kerr have to deal with it. You just need to have a thick skin. Another key lesson she learnt is if something looks too good to be true, it usually is. Make sure you ask around before accepting offers from photographers that don't have a reputation for being professional.

Alexia Efstathiadis

I am Alexia Efstathiadis, 19 years young, originally from Long Island, and am now residing in NYC for school. I go to John Jay College and aspire to be a forensic psychologist and help people affected by crime.

I'm Greek (as you can probably tell from my last name.) I think it's important for every woman to have self confidence and ambition to be better. Hard work pays off. I've been going to the gym four times a week for the last six months and have seen amazing results. Nothing comes easy and although we have tight schedules we should be stronger than our excuses.

THANS

My name is Thans and I am 24 years old. I was born in Switzerland, a beautiful country where I have been living 13 years. I am Spanish so my family's dream was to come back to our country, we did it and I have been living there for 10 years. I also made my Translation and Interpretation studies in the country of the sun. After that I came to France and I discovered a new passion: fitness.

I started training 9 months ago and I saw results very fast. That's why I started training 6 times a week to prepare myself for fitness competitions here in France. I have two coaches, both are very important people in my life. Without them I would never have achieved those amazing results. The first cares about my special diet and the second trains me at the gym and also organized all my communication. That's a new way of life for me but an amazing way to live. You have to do lots of sacrifices but when you see the results in your body and all the people that support you it's just an amazing victory.

Now I want to continue travelling around the world and learn new languages. For the moment I speak French, Spanish, English and Italian. With this new way of life I learned something: you have always to go for your dreams, don't care about what people say or think about you, you are the boss of your life and you have to be proud of you and your results.

Just care about you and the people that supports you. Life is a gift, so just do it!
