My name is TATYANA HOKE, originally from Eastern Europe (Russia) but now I reside in the Daytona Beach, FL. area. I have been modeling for almost 6 years now in the US, & for 5 years prior in such cities as Moscow & St.Petersburg since I was 16, mostly local fashion/runway style shows for new designers as well as formal & evening gown style work & various modeling shows prior to coming to the US. I also participated in various styles of theater/plays as a child. I am hopeful that I can continue doing what I Love to do by persuing such work here in the US with clothing/fashion designers of all types & styles. I am all "Natural" & I have no piercings or tattoo's that can hinder the photos. I am 5' 8" in. & my measurement's are 34B-24-35. I am available for just about any type of "Modeling Projects". I have excellent makeup and hair skills and do not require a make-up artist on most of my shoots. I'm very reliable, always on time and always give 100% on every shoot! No job is to big or to small for me. I have worked with both amateurs as well as professionals over the years. Creative ideas are always' welcomed. I am available to shoot but certain standards must be met before setting an actual shoot date.

Tatyana Hoke

Hello! My name is Melissa Lane, and I'm a professional model from Tampa, Florida. I grew up as a beach baby in Florida, later moving all around the states for work. I moved back to Florida recently and have found there is nothing I enjoy more than being in a bikini by the beach and my family. My love for dance helped introduce me to the model world. I joined a dance team and was very passionate about dancing and breaking out of my shell. Unfortunately, I was not a favorite of the Director. I found myself the last several practices crying in the bathroom, not understanding why other girls were picked over me at times. I knew I would have to market myself and take responsibility for finding gigs if I left the company. At the start of my research I came across a bikini model search add. I've always stayed in shape by working out, and fortunately or unfortunately, I believed the last guy I dated who said my body was soo sexy. I went to the competition and fell in love with the cute bikinis and how awesome the people were. All the other models were so beautiful and professional. It was the start of a new venture and passion for me. Over the last 9 months I've accomplished being featured in two calendars, multiple biker magazines, Babe of the week for a radio station, and have placed in 8 bikini competitions. I'm enjoying this ride and am working hard. My primary goal is to be recognized for my work as a model and a role model for other aspiring models. I'd also like to continue my dance career and maybe one day teach dance on a cruise ship or run away with the Cirque du Soleil.

MELISSA LANE

I have been modeling since five years ago. Fortunately I have had the chance to work with many experienced photographers. Actually I am working for a Swedish Model Agency. and I am modeling for Gömda juveler and Serenata.

CHRISTIN ROBERSON

I currently reside in North Carolina and am a freelance model. I have been modeling for two years and am constantly educating myself every day in the industry.

I'm also a certified Cosmetologist. I'm capable of doing my hair and makeup. I can also do fake lashes, nails and toes. I'm always camera ready, and full of energy! I also have a very large and versatile wardrobe and due to my shopaholic syndrome, my closet is always growing.

Know that I'm a dreamer and I'm setting out to follow in the foot steps of my biggest inspirations, Janice Dickinson, Tyra Banks, Bridgette Bardot, Victoria Beckham and the forever iconic Marilyn Monroe. I won't rest until that is achieved.

I love shooting with photographers like Ben Ray at Push Play Photography, who think outside of the box and who have a different take on beauty! I'm always looking to create something different.

My objective is to motivate others to have a healthy Happy lifestyle all over the world. Share my experiences and advice to those who want it. I am very motivated and determined when I put my mind to something and that goal is to go IFBB pro. I want to show others that you can still have a full time job and family and still stay in shape. You just need to have goals and find a balance. I am currently trying to get my pro card which means I am waiting for the next show. Thus I am staying lean and under watch of my trainer all the time. Unless he gives me a cheat meal I follow my diet. It is my lifestyle not just for the end show.

I have my associates completed in the community college of the air force. Education is also a big part of it, you need a strong mind and body. You have to know what you are doing from your diet and how to work out properly. Three shows under my belt, I love the thrill of being on stage. I have had different trainers, and workout friends and I've learned so much with each one of them, from weight training to dieting or just ways to make my food taste better. I have been physically active since I was a child involved in many sports and physical hobbies: skiing, snowboarding, marathons, soccer, volleyball, karate. My favorite sport being beach volleyball.

My Award are as follow: on March 22nd 2014 at the Panhandle Showdown Pensacola, FL my first fitness show I became NPC nationally qualified placing 2nd in open bikini in my class and 3rd in Novice. March 6th 2015 in an AFS fitness show Finland, Helsinki I was with Team Armed Forces Europe. I placed 1st in bikini short class and 2nd overall. The Finland show had 50,000 spectators. I have done 3 shows already since March 2014. I don't have an off season I am continually trying to go and will go pro and better myself after every show. It is my lifestyle.
