Cover Girl Crystal Danos

is a Native American model from the southern heat of Louisiana. She grew up on an Indian reservation, Isle de Jean Charles, which consisted of a small two lane road that reached out for 3 miles connecting an island to the mainland. She lived off the wildlife of the land as a child. She comes from a large family of 10 brothers and 3 sisters. Modeling is her natural born talent. She is spontaneous, adventurous, and very energetic. She enjoys the daily challenges of hardcore training with no limits while promoting children's charities for several communities throughout the southeast. Crystal is the 'go the extra mile' model! She expands the boundaries of modeling by revolutionizing how bikini modeling isn't just a glamour shoot but rather a caption of natural beauty indented to serve the greater good.

Crystal's credo to training is, "Train Insane or Remain the Same." She enjoys running three miles per day, football stadium sprints, plyometric focused exercises along with "in the dirt" warrior obstacle races. Her training is conformed to her diet, to say the least, on spot. A diet rich in the right carbs at the right time infused with wholesome nutrition that only compliments her recovery and physique which allows Crystal to reach unmeasurable gains. If you don't already have it, www.sweati.com (App for iPhone) is Crystal's premier source for fitness news, blogs, diets and networking with other fitness professionals. With so much tied into her complex training, "Sweati" serves as the matrix to keep her on her game.

As a strong advocate for children's charities, Crystal has introduced to the bikini modeling world a "get involved" approach that directs the fame of bikini modeling industry to step up to the challenges facing childhood sicknesses and under privileges. St. Jude's, Make a Wish and Big Brother - Big Sisters foundations along with Coats for Kids and Toys for Tots are just a few groups that Crystal has been directly related to in her charities' campaign. There is more, Crystal also have been a great promoter for Wounded Warriors, Breast Cancer Awareness and Find a Cure foundations. In her own words, "We all have footprints, I want mine to leave more than a imprint... change is the difference I want to leave."

Crystal during her off time is a fan of family, friends and fun. Crystal can be found on the Island's Reserve with a fishing pole in hand and fish on a string. She is an avid marksmen with a bow which has given her a great respect among the "camo" guys in her hunting club. Crystal also belongs to a community of fisherman and just know that she is a sucker for seafood. She loves to cook and create new recipes; some include her famous "cajun shrimp bisque, oyster Rockefeller and a fan favorite crawfish etoufee'!

Crystal's professional modeling portfolio is very impressive to say the least. She has been published 42 times which consists of 18 different magazines publications, featured in silver screen movie productions and stared in a bikini reality show. Front cover with red carpet interviews has established Crystal as a "who's who" among the modeling world. Crystal brings a refreshing style bikini (Bayou Bikini) line that she and her business partner launched last year and has grown into a must have for the bikini season. Fashion, how about Smash Clothing LLC and L.A. Boutique which are the staple of Crystal's artistic fashion designs. IBMS (International Bikini Model Search LLC) has inducted Crystal into the IBMS ambassadors alumni Hall of Models. IBMS is the "Crown Jewel," "The Meca," "Star Studded" organization second to none and recognized as a career launcher for top name models, photographers, publishers and designers.

Photographers have called ahead of time to ensure Crystal has room to shoot. With a high demand to grace the lenses of the industries top photographers, Crystal 's shooting style is a refreshing artistic balance unmatched in front of the lens and on set. Photographers include but not limited to; the brilliant and captivating Shane Gauthier whom is known for breaking the mold on lens' focus, taking "The Shot" into an aurora of casting lights with shadows of color. The results of his camera perfection and keen eye to artistic concept results in awestruck. Shane, like no other photographer, has coined abilities to use the model's psychological energy and positioning emotion to blend background, light and shadow. His work has been dubbed grand mosaic artistry. Also included are Drew Santos, Joe Damaso, Gary Miller, Chris Armstrong, Nelly Putnam, ELM, Chris Rifkin, Inline Photography, LJ Allen Media, Jesse Smith, John Chevasin, Mac Millian, R. Jay Gamboa, and Dave Kotinsky.

It's very hard to conclude on a subject matter such as Crystal Danos. But, it has been very exciting, rewarding and fun to star Crystal Danos in this special edition of BIKINI Magazine

Shane attended his first International Bikini Model Search Event in Punta Cana on Sept 2014 at the Barcelo Bavaro. He went with his Camera hoping to learn about photography and have a good time meeting everyone. Right away he noticed how models and photographers were sharing ideas for shoots. Him being new to the IBMS event, he was asked to come along and help out. Photographers were especially helpful with him and let him go to their shoots and answered his questions. After the shoots there was always a themed party to attend, and again mingle and talk with different people. After this event he went and got better photography equipment. The event in May 2015 at Barcelo Bavaro was a lot better for him as he knew people from the time he landed, and was booking shoots with models and photographers he met previously. He found himself texting with models and photographers almost everyday. "The IBMS is a great learning experience for everybody, experienced or new, and to learn in a positive environment," he says.

Hey! My name is Jennifer Bates, I am 24 years old. You can find me serving cold beer & great food in orange shorts at Hooters! I'm new to the modeling industry, but I've loved everything I've done so far. I've done a couple of photoshoots, and recently was featured in a music video! I look forward to what the future has in store for my modeling career. When I'm not modeling, I'm probably gaming! I play adventure/role playing games, and some shooter games. My all time favorite is The Legend of Zelda series.

Jennifer Bates

I enjoy modeling because it allows me to express myself creatively through fashion and form. I love to visually bring a sense of drama and dream-like fantasy to life. I make taking care of my body and health a priority, and strive to be the best version of myself that I can be. I am also a photographer as well as a model, so I definitely enjoy and appreciate the whole creative process. In addition, I own and operate a handcrafted organic body products small business, called The Body Emporium, while raising my three year old daughter.

I have a fun bubbly personality and great attitude. Very reliable and easy to work with as well. I attend school at Missouri state University where I received my bachelors degree! My passion is modeling which is Art that was the path I choose to awake my fellow people! ! The begin of these thoughts of Beauty in the middle of chaos turned into the passion for the only things she now knows Fashion, creativity and modeling! Please understand I am not just a Model, I am not just a spectator of fashion, but I AM ART. I am my Work!

JacquelineGreta

Let me tell ya about this homegirl of mine, sexy beautiful and oh so fine. Magical powers that will blow you away, don't get attached she ain't going to stay. I first saw her vision through the clubhouse front door, and ever since that day she's been loyal to the core. She always has a weapon and that's a fact, don't get her mad or you will get wacked. She only knows one speed, and that's wide fucking open, give it up son you'll only be hopin. Man and women both stare would desire, some of them have caught on fire! As she enters a room you'll soon understand... Way more interesting than the dos equis man. She's got hot pink lips that will put a spell on you, her incredible hips are mesmerizing too. She's a shot caller in any camp, better give it up she's the champ! Think you're a player and you got game? She'll laugh in your face and call you lame! She's traveled the world and calls dago home. Back in the day she ruled Rome. She can ride out, drink out and drive out most any man, give it a try you'll soon be a fan. Triple X rated, no holes barred, this bad bitch is a wildcard! I didn't see it coming it happened so fast, this lioness has reflexes like a cat! She's a bad bitch from a badass town, it is going to take a real motherfucker to bed this one down! Miss Jax Greta is a legend in this town! Written by: president of infamous MC who wishes to remain anonymous. Those are just a few words written about me to give you an idea The depths of darkness I've seen. All in the hopes of living like a queen. Born a free spirit held down by none, just living life on the edge having fun. Life on the run ducking and dodging the feds one by one. As the dark cloud of addiction takes over my soul, my story is unbelievable almost sounds like fiction. As the normal civilian lives in true bliss, not knowing the evil that lurks in their home. In a city of sin, power and fame.....I earned my name, a true lioness can never be tamed. Waking up in a prison cell thinking lord what have I done, I was just trying to have fun in the beautiful hot dago sun. Violence and terror was the life I chose, for what reason nobody knows. Passed up Harvard law school so I could be cool, sometimes I think....damn what a fool. I gave up on love, convinced I was damned by the Gods above. This life had its perks, pure adrenaline pumping through my veins for the life in the fast lane, so far from sane. The day to day life always subject to change, always blood, sweat and tears, faces rearranged. Better know the definition of respect cuz their are secrets to be kept. Watch out or you will get left when the sounds of police sirens and helicopters surround. In the eye of the storm you'd be amazed what was found, a part of ur soul that is no longer bound. I have no regrets, no karmic debts. I did my time, lived a life of crime and here I am to say I've lived another day with my head held high because I didn't die, fighting the demons that lie lie lie. What some people don't know is that under immense heat and pressure diamonds are made. With lessons of the soul there are stories to be told of great strength and courage and wisdom to behold. With that comes sobriety and dreams come to be. Without all that misery then I wouldnt be me! To wake up and realize this path was destined to be. For I am a teacher, a healer, a glimmer of hope that I wouldn't be if it weren't for the dope. While sitting and reflecting upon my new life, I felt more than ever love like a knife buried in my chest just like the rest. As I woke from my slumber at 30 years old all I can remember is love being so cold. What is life without love, dreams of Bonnie and Clyde my partner in crime. Feelings of fear of dying alone. Then all of a sudden on one fated day, I couldn't believe it I found my soulmate! He came on his white horse to take me away, why he chose me I can't even say. He stitched up the pieces of my broken heart, says I am an angel who choose a hard life, to heal all the anger suffering and strife. And here we are today so madly in love living The life and soon to be his wife. As I stand here today I am proud to say I have a priceless story...who's to say how many lives I might save! To be continued.....

Hi, everyone!
I'm a professional, experienced model based in Phoenix, AZ. I have a fun, outgoing personality and love being around people. Modeling gives me confidence and satisfy my artistic side. I enjoy themed shoots and willing to pose up to art/glam nudes. I want to thank all of the photographers I have worked with, and I look forward to working with new photographers in the future. I love all of my family, friends and photographers. I wouldn't be where I am today without them.

My name is brooklyn, I come from a small town Marshfield Missouri. I moved to Orlando Florida to chase my dreams as a model. I was born with a ptosis in my left eye. I want to reach out to girls all over the world and share my story. Just cause you were born with something different doesn't mean you don't fit in. :) I want to show girls all over the world that they can accomplish anything they want no matter what and even if you are born with a birth defect that is rare like what I was born with. Everyone should believe in themselves. My goal is to make playboy one day. I want to be that girl with a birth defect published in playboy and show people they can do anything. It's my dream to reach out to girls all over the world. I hope you enjoy my article fans. God bless you all.

Miller Maison

In May 2014, Miller-Maison moved to Chattanooga, TN. A painter asked Miller-Maison if he could paint a portrait of her but he wanted to sketch her out first. She went down to the riverside in downtown Chattanooga and got sketched out, some photographs made and got a painting made of her. She's been traveling and doing pictures everywhere, California, Tennessee and Mississippi. "I started modeling for a local magazine in November, 2014 called Southern Soul Magazine in Memphis, TN and I did two consecutive issues and I'm still working with them." Modeling is more of a hobby, it's her passion, "I love taking pictures and I like creating illusions, that's what I like to do," she says. Miller-Maison is 27 and lives in Memphis, Tennessee.
