Evelyn Jones

Hello everyone! My Name Is Evelyn, I'm a 24 year old mother of two precious little boys. I'm originally from Oakland California. Had a rough childhood, grew up in a homeless shelter with parents who were struggling with drug addiction. My father over came his demons though and that is what moved us to Arkansas where we live now.

I am a free spirit and very outgoing I just like having a good time. I'm a big flirt and I love people and conversations on any topic. I love family time, hiking, camping, floating and just getting out and enjoying nature. I guess I'm kind of a hippie chick at heart but hey, that works for me! We live on a lake and its absolutely beautiful here. I love that I get to raise my boys in the country and share my love for nature with them.

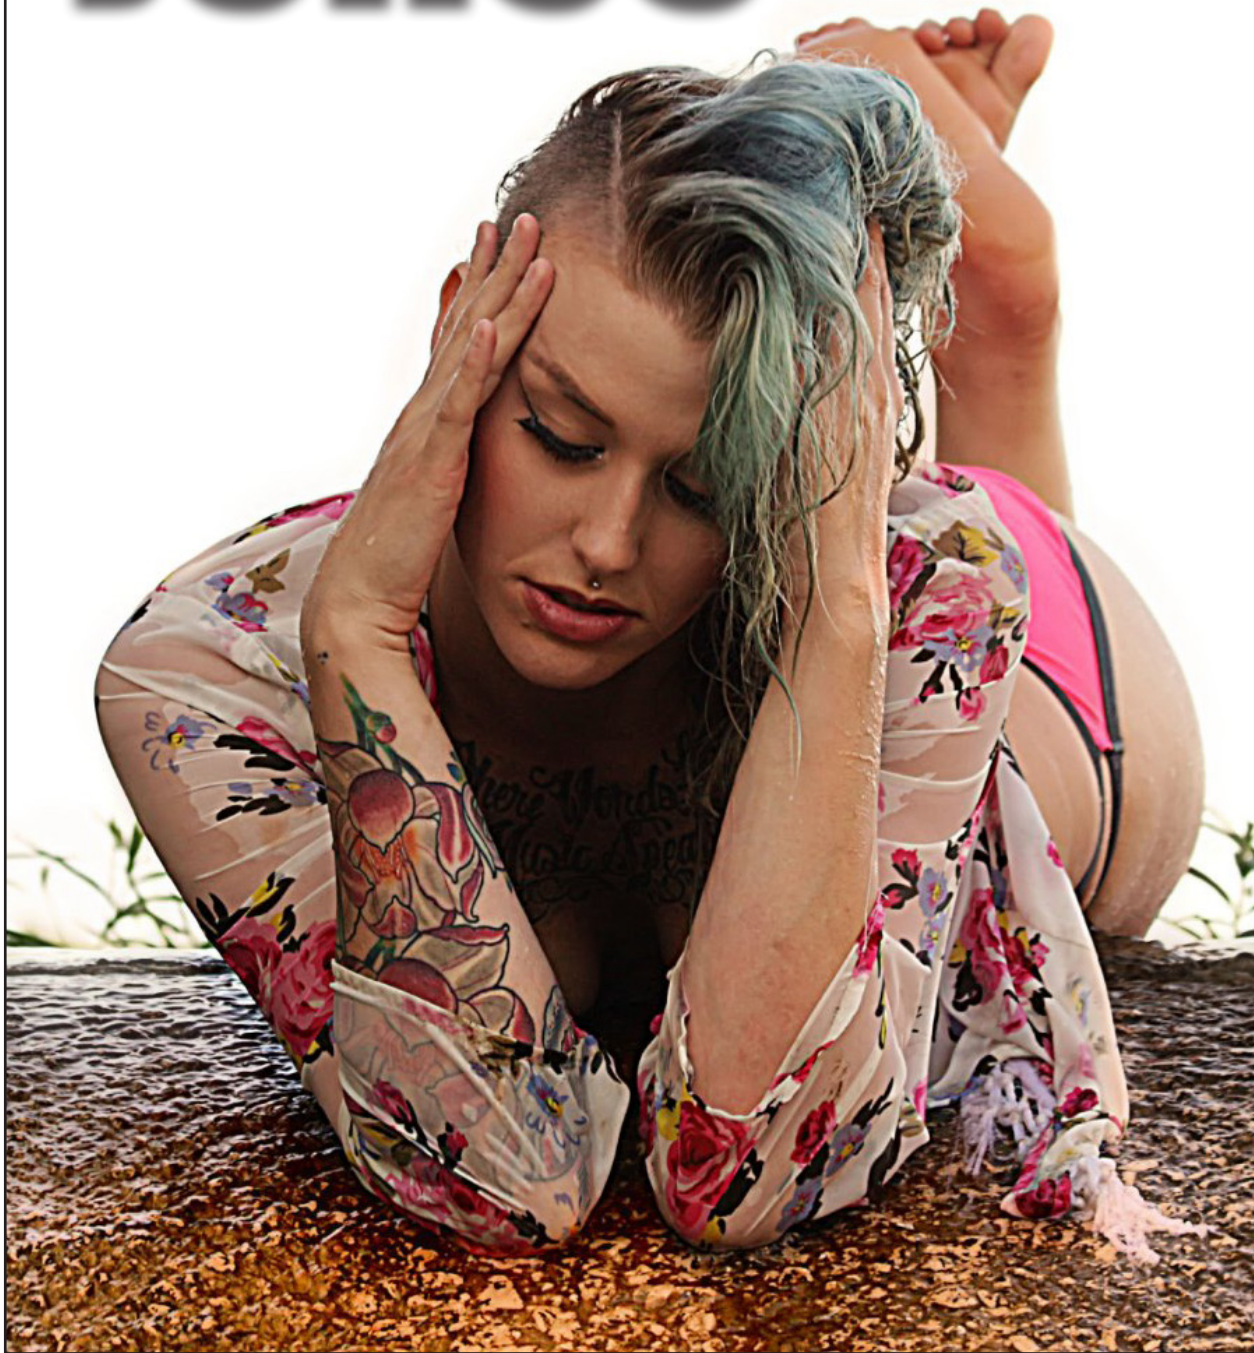

I am an inked or alternative model and hope to be big some day, my goal is to be a Sullen Angel. My Hubby Richard is my tattoo artist, he did all my ink. I haven't been modeling all that long but have been fortunate to have been able to work with some very talented artists. This last shoot with my friend and photographer Sean Tice was really fun. I was a little nervous, and excited since I hadn't done a shoot like this before but it was a blast playing in the water. He made me feel so relaxed and sexy just letting me be a kid and have fun I loved it! I Cant wait to do more like this! I just want to push myself to become a success in everything I do. Modeling is my passion, I dream of one day to travel the world for work. So- Keep an eye out for me, I am highly motivated, willing to learn and eager to expand my portfolio-remember my name, so much more to come!

Hello, my name is Sabrina; I am a firm believer in being true to yourself and as Marilyn Monroe put it "I'd rather be hated for who I am than loved for who I am not".

I am a 25 year old adventure, risk-taking conessieur who has been everywhere one can imagine. I have been with east coast celebrity since 2014! I took a year off from modeling because I broke my neck ; it was a life changing experience (and not the only crazy experience) that has truly made me stronger than ever.

Modeling has always been my passion- it allows me to show the world a different type of beauty while breaking all the stereotypes in the modeling culture. I have several tattoos all of which I love. They all have a significant meaning behind them as well as a unbelievable story.

As I am not fit for the stereotypical 8-5 job life I spend my time at jobs that allow my creativity to shine such as marketing, and stage design, I am a very passionate person who believes in pursuing your dream/goals regardless of what you're told you can or can't do; life passes by to quick & at the end of mine I will be able to say I killed it

Hi I'm Megan Diana, I'm 20 years old and I'm from New Jersey. I'm a very hard working and dedicated person, and modeling is my main passion. I've been modeling with East Coast Celebrity for two months, and it is an absolutely amazing experience. I'm so lucky and fortunate to have my amazing agent Jeff who dedicates so much time with me and helps me succeed in my modeling career. He always always looks out for my best interest and shoots with me 3 times a week. While I'm not shooting, I attend college and my major is English Education. I've maintained a 4.0 GPA all throughout college so far and I'm in multiple honor societies at my college. In just a year and a half I will be graduating with my teaching degree and will be certified to teach grades 6-12. An interesting fact about me is that I'm obsessed with the gym. No matter what mood I'm in, when I leave the gym after a great workout, I feel amazing. I do weight training, yoga, spin class, Zumba, and crossfit. I also have two part time jobs. I work at a clothing store in a mall, and I also tutor children once a week and help them with their homework. I'm a very busy girl and I love challenging myself to be the best possible version of myself. My lingerie worn in my shoots are from Victoria's Secret and Dreamgirl Lingerie. My hair and makeup were done by me, and my pictures were taken by my amazing agent Jeff Caso.
